RELATIVE TO INTERVENTION

Senator Platt's Views of the Third Clause of His Amendment.

HIS LETTER IS MADE PUBLIC

He Declares It Does Not in Any Way Compromise the Independence or Suzerainty of Cuba.

Washington June 7.—During the conference between Secretary Root and the Cuban commission the secretary wrote a letter to Senator Platt of Connecticut who introduced the Platt amendment asking his views relative to intervention as mentioned in the third clause of the amendment. Secretary Platt replied and his letter was furnished to the commission confidentially by the secretary of war and is incorporated into and made a part of the record of the Platt amendment by the constitutional convention. The letter however appeared in a Havana paper and today was made public by the war department.

Following is the text of the letter:

I am in receipt of your letter of this date in which you say that members of the Cuban constitutional convention fear that the provisions relative to the intervention in the third clause of the amendment which has come to bear [illegible] may have the effect of preventing the independence of Cuba and in reality establish a protectorate or suzerainty by the United States and you request that I express my views of the question raised.

In reply I beg to state that the amendment was carefully prepared with the object of avoiding any possible idea that by the acceptance thereof the constitutional convention would thereby establish a protectorate or suzerainty or in any manner whatsoever compromise the independence or sovereignty of Cuba and speaking for myself it seems impossible that such an interpretation can be given to the clause. I believe that the amendment should be considered as a whole and it ought to be clear on reading that its well defined purpose is to secure and safeguard Cuban independence and set forth at once a clear idea of the friendly disposition of the United States toward the Cuban people and the express intention on their part to aid them if necessary in the maintenance of said independence. These are my ideas and although as you say I cannot speak for the entire congress my belief is that such a purpose was well understood by that body.

Very respectfully yours
O. H. Platt

SURVEYS FOR NAVAL STATIONS IN CUBA

Washington June 7.—The naval surveys which have been in progress for some time along the coast of Cuba have disclosed the most available harbors for coaling and naval stations in case these are established in accordance with the Platt amendment. The Eagle, Yankton and Vixen have been conducting these surveys for many months and most of the main harbors are now completed.

Probably the most important points are Cape San Antonio at the extreme western extremity of Cuba and Cape Maysi at the extreme eastern end. At Cape Maysi it has been found that there is a reef running far out into the water and that there is no suitable harbor within about 40 miles from the cape. The bay of Nipe appears to afford the most available harbor in that locality. At the other extremity of the island it has been found that Cape San Antonio has no harbor of any kind in its immediate vicinity suitable for a naval coaling station. This locality is regarded as extremely important from a naval and strategic standpoint as it commands the Yucatan passage. Most of the large harbors along the northern and southern coast have been surveyed and charted those of Cienfuegos and Guantanamo apparently being among the best on the southern coast. These surveys have proceeded without any reference to the political questions relating to Cuba although the work already accomplished will be serviceable when these political relations are finally determined.

AMERICANS THE GUESTS OF LONDON'S LORD MAYOR

London June 7.—The lord mayor Frank Green and the sheriffs received the delegates of the New York chamber of commerce at the Mansion house today. About 30 of the delegates were presented to the lord mayor and were shown over the Mansion house. A number of members of the London chamber of commerce including Lord Brassey and Sir Albert K. Rollit were present. The lord mayor addressed the Americans thanking them in the warmest terms for their visit and declaring that nothing could have done more to promote a perfect understanding and unity between the two greatest nations of the world. He alluded to Morris K. Jessup the reference in his speech at the banquet Wednesday to the impossibility of jealous rivalry existing between the United States and Great Britain as one of the truest things ever said.

Lord Brassey spoke in a similar vein.

Mr Jessup in replying said:

"Your kindness has captivated our hearts. We are not worthy of it [illegible] in which some of the Americans joined followed Mr Jessup's remarks.

Mr Jessup then referred to his fellow delegates as children of the great country and concluded with expressions of fervent thanks for their reception.

The lord mayor proposed the health of King Edward and President McKinley coupling with the latter a heartfelt wish for Mrs McKinley's recovery.

Andrew Carnegie was the center of attraction throughout. After the ceremonies ended the lord mayor went up to him and said he especially wanted to shake hands with Mr Carnegie who said:

"In New York in my young and poor days when I read about Dick Whittington I little thought I should stand here shaking the lord mayor's hand."

The lord mayor replied: "We read nothing else today but Mr Carnegie's splendid gifts and in the name of the English people I want to thank you for your unexampled generosity."

The delegates were then entertained at an informal luncheon in Salters hall by the London chamber of commerce.

TWO MEN ESCAPED LAW'S PENALTIES BY TRAGEDIES

Toronto Ont June 7.—Of the three men Fred Lee Rice Thomas Jones and Frank Rutledge extradited from Chicago to stand trial for the robbery of a bank in Aurora Ont Rice is the only living survivor to serve out the [illegible] years imprisonment to which he was sentenced this morning.

Two tragedies have put Jones and Rutledge beyond the reach of the law. Jones died from bullet wounds received in a desperate attempt to escape from officers who were transferring the prisoners from the court house to the jail last Tuesday and Rutledge committed suicide today by jumping from the gallery in the jail to the stone court 30 feet below.

While the carriage containing Jones, Rice and Rutledge and two constables was proceeding from the court house to the jail last Tuesday night an accomplice threw three revolvers through the cab window. The desperadoes evidently were expecting outside help for they acted promptly. Securing possession of the revolvers, the three men opened fire upon the constables. One constable was shot and killed. The officers returned the fire and Jones was wounded in the groin and arm. He died at the hospital. A street car conductor whose car the burglars attempted to board struck Rutledge on the head with a piece of iron knocking him senseless. Rice surrendered.

Today Rice and Rutledge were sentenced to 21 years imprisonment in Kingston penitentiary. Rutledge was being taken to dinner with another prisoner in charge of one of the guards about 3 o'clock. Suddenly he made a dash and springing up the stairway mounted to the gallery running around inside of the jail 30 feet from the floor. Climbing over the railing he fell forward on the stone floor fracturing his skull. He was immediately taken to the hospital where he died without regaining consciousness.

CARNEGIE'S GIFT TO SCOTCH UNIVERSITIES

London June 7.—Andrew Carnegie signed a deed today transferring $10,000,000 in 5 per cent United States Steel corporation bonds to trustees for the benefit of the universities of Scotland. The amount becomes immediately available. The next instalment of interest can be used for the October term. The trustees are the earl of Elgin and Rosebery, Lords Balfour of Burleigh (chief secretary for Ireland), Kelvin, Reay and Kinnear, Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman, A. J. Balfour, James Bryce, John Morley, Sir Robert Pullar, Sir Henry E. Roscoe, Thomas Shaw M. P., Richard B. Haldane M. P., the lords provost of Edinburgh and Glasgow—the provost of Dunfermline and one trustee each from Scottish universities.

The deed contains a preamble saying that Mr. Carnegie having retired from active business deems it to be his duty and one of his highest privileges to administer the wealth which has come to him as a trustee in behalf of others entertaining the confident belief that one of the best means of discharging that trust is providing funds for spreading and improving the opportunities for scientific research of the universities of Scotland, his native land, and by rendering the attendance easier.

A constitution as it is called is attached to the deed directing that half the income be devoted to increasing the facilities for the study of science, medicine, modern languages, history and English literature. The other half is to pay fees and assist students in other ways regardless of sex and in aid of preparatory schools, evening classes and other means of education outside the universities.

Life of a Negro Saved From a Mob In Georgia---One Man Killed and Two Others Wounded.

Carrollton Ga. June 7. The nerve of a Georgia sheriff Joseph Merrill today upheld the law of the state and saved the life of a negro from a mob. In protecting the negro who was saved from the gallows only a few hours before through the efforts of his lawyers one life was lost and two men were wounded. The arrival of the state militia averted threatened trouble tonight, and at 9 o'clock a special train bearing the negro whose crime was the murder of a little white boy whom he found fishing alone was speeding toward Atlanta, under guard.

The man killed in attacking the jail was George Bennett of Carrollton and the wounded men are Thomas Smith, a citizen of Carrollton and an unknown man presumably a farmer. Thomas S. Word father of the murdered boy, who was in the front rank of the would be lynchers, was not hit. After Bennett fell Mr Word jumped upon a window sill and exclaimed dramatically:

"Shoot me Mr Sheriff I would as soon die now as any time."

Only nine shots were fired and the walls of the jail show the marks of the bullets. None of the sheriff's posse was hit.

Williams the negro who caused the trouble was tried and found guilty of murdering Otis Word January 1, 1901, and sentenced to be hanged today. He was only this morning refused a new trial but his attorneys filed a bill of exceptions and carried the case to the supreme court. A large crowd of people had come to town to witness the hanging, and when it was learned that an appeal had been taken to the supreme court, delaying the execution there was much excited talk which crystallized soon after in the formation of a mob. At noon the mob made an assault on the jail. They battered down the outside door despite the warning of the sheriff and entered the building.

They made a demand on the sheriff for the key to the negro's cell but were refused. With the refusal they began their advance upon the sheriff and the few deputies which he had been able to summon to his aid. They were told to stop or they would be fired on but the order was not obeyed.

As they advanced down the corridor toward the sheriff the order was given to fire. Bennett fell dying almost instantly. Thomas Smith who was in the front of the mob was badly wounded as was also an unknown countryman. The unexpected fight of the sheriff and his little posse frightened the mob and they retreated outside of the jail. Here they broke and ran and were soon divided into little groups discussing the event. Sheriff Merrill at once consulted Judge Harris of the county court and it was decided to call upon Governor Candler for aid. The governor was communicated with by telephone and said he would send two companies from Atlanta as soon as they could be assembled.

During the afternoon the mob telephoned the situation to friends in the adjoining towns of Villa Rica and Temple and made an appeal for more men to get possession of the negro. This was communicated also to Governor Candler and the governor soon wired a proclamation to the people of the county. It was read from the steps of the court house at 4 o'clock by the mayor.

The governor commanded the people to disperse and said the entire militia and civil forces of the state would be used to enforce the order if necessary. The reading of the proclamation apparently had a good effect as many people were seen to mount their horses and leave town. Much apprehension was felt for the night and the sheriff and city and county officials after a consultation decided to take the prisoner out of the county for safe keeping. The Atlanta militia, under command of Major Barker arrived about 6 o'clock and one hour later escorted the negro and Sheriff Merrill to the train which was soon speeding southward to Atlanta.

Man Who Will Take Up Part of Moody's Work

REV G CAMPBELL MORGAN

New York June 7. A dispatch to the Journal and Advertiser from London says:

The Rev G Campbell Morgan who is leaving for the United States to take up a portion of the evangelistic work of Dwight L. Moody had a great send-off tonight at the City Temple. The enormous building was packed by an enthusiastic audience. Dr Parker who presided said:

"Because Mr Morgan is being taken away I don't entertain a very friendly feeling to those across the Atlantic. My friends in America were wise in their choice of such a man as Morgan. To take the Americans in bulk which by the way we never could is to handle a multitudinous expressive quantity.

"I have never known an unwise American. They always get the best of things look out as we may. Let us think we are getting the better of them, we soon find we are mistaken. America is full of youthfulness, and there is much holy and unholy ambition in that most wonderful country."

Mr Morgan said:

"I am going away not because it is the call of America, but the call of God. I look forward with glad expectancy to the work before me."

SCHWAB BOUGHT THE BETHLEHEM STEEL CO.

Philadelphia June 7.—The North American tomorrow will say:

It is authoritatively stated that Charles M Schwab is the real purchaser of the Bethlehem Steel company and that the United States Steel corporation of which he is president has no part in the deal. Mr Schwab is understood to have bought the property to protect his own interests. The deal was closed Thursday afternoon when Mr Schwab through a representative bought 80,000 shares of Bethlehem from Joseph Wharton and 60,000 shares from Robert P Linderman. This with 20,000 shares bought in the open market, gave him 160,000 out of 300,000 shares into which the capital stock of the Bethlehem Steel company is divided. It was agreed that he should take the remaining stock on the same terms upon which he got the Wharton and Linderman holdings.

It is known that the price paid is $24.50 a share but that the sellers get something additional in the shape of a dividend to be divided prior to transferring the stock.

Vickers Sons and Maxim, who allowed the Bethlehem company to slip from their hands because of a difference of 60 cents a share made an effort on Thursday night to buy it from Mr Schwab. It is said that their representative went to him at the Waldorf-Astoria in New York and offered a price which would have netted him a profit of $2,000,000 but which he declined to accept.

STEEL WORKERS' PLAN OF WAGE SETTLEMENT

Milwaukee June 7.—The committee of the Amalgamated Association of Iron Tin and Steel Workers association adjourned sine die tonight after selecting the following officers:

President T J Shaefer Pittsburg; secretary treasurer John Williams Pittsburg; manager Amalgamated Journal Ben I Davis, Pittsburg; trustees, J. H. Morgan Cambridge O., Elias Jenkins Youngstown O., John E. Taylor Pittsburg.

The most important work of the convention is considered to be the adoption of the so-called continuous scale plan. It is really not a continuous scale but a continuation of the present method of annual wage settlement with some amendments.

The most important of these provides for the continuous operation of the mills while the scale is being considered in conference and an extension of the time within which an agreement must be arrived at. There is no provision for the continuance from year to year of such portions of the scale as may be satisfactory to both the association and the companies at the time of the annual wage adjustment.

Neither is there any provision for dating back any increase in wages. No reference is made to the compulsory arbitration but a conciliator is provided for.

The [illegible] plan of annual wage settlement adopted by the convention is as follows:

The annual convention will be held in April when the whole scale will be revised. The scale will be given to the manufacturers on May 15. The period for conference negotiations shall expire June 15. If no agreement is reached by that date a conciliator shall be called into the conference. He shall decide contested points but his decisions shall not be final or binding. If no agreement is reached by July 15 all association mills are to close. The limit of settlement in force is July 1, at which time if no agreement is reached the men walk out. The new plan extends the period of conference from three to eight weeks.

The visits were expressive of the good will existing between Brazil and the United States and were in return for the courtesy shown by the United States when President Campos-Salles was inaugurated in having the Iowa and Oregon in Brazilian waters.

AGUINALDO'S IMPORTANCE

General Fred Grant Thinks It Has Been Over Rated Here.

HIS INFLUENCE WAS LOST

Fine of $10 and 30 Days in Jail Would Be About the Right Thing for Former Chief.

New York June 7. General Frederick Dent Grant was given a reception tonight by U S Grant post G. A. R. In a brief address General Grant said:

"Aguinaldo was not as much of a capture in the Philippines as he seems to have been here. To tell the truth he had lost about all his influence. We do not treat him as if we considered him of some importance. We cannot kill him of course but we want to make him feel that he stands on the same footing with any other Filipino. If we should fine him $10 and send him to jail for 30 days and set him to breaking rock it would be better for him and for ourselves. If when he comes over here we treat him with contempt he will be treated with contempt by the natives when he goes home. But if over there they get the idea that we have a high idea of Aguinaldo's importance when he gets back he will have a following which may make us trouble."

General Grant said that the friars were much hated and very corrupt. The Philippine commission, he said desired to treat the friars the same as any other persons with no more consideration and with no less.

MRS. M'KINLEY IS IN NO RESPECT ANY WORSE

Washington June 7.—Mrs McKinley's physicians were in consultation over an hour this forenoon and at 11:45 o'clock the following statement was issued:

"Mrs McKinley's physicians state that her condition is about the same as reported yesterday. There has been no material change in the past 24 hours."

Dr Rixey at 10:30 tonight made this statement as he left the White house:

"Mrs McKinley is now resting comfortably. Her condition shows no change as compared with the situation announced in this morning's bulletin. She has not lost ground nor on the other hand has there been any perceptible improvement. She is just the same as when we saw her this morning."

Dr Rixey when asked regarding the result of the microscopic examination of the patient's blood said he had nothing to say on the subject and if anything was to be given out it would be after a consultation of the three physicians. He said there had been no unfavorable developments during the day.

Some apprehension has been felt as to the possible unfavorable effect of the warm weather but a heavy rain fell today and brought lower temperature and much satisfaction was expressed at the White house at the temporary relief.

Mrs. McKinley ordinarily suffers little from the heat of the summer in Washington but the possible effect of it at this time in view of her low vitality and the necessity for guarding against anything in the nature of a sinking spell or a drain upon her strength caused some anxiety.

The complaint from which Mrs McKinley suffered in San Francisco is not entirely checked but it is said to be under better control. Despite some reports to the contrary, it is stated emphatically at the White house that Mrs McKinley has not grown any worse.

The president saw no callers this evening. At 4 o'clock this afternoon he went out unaccompanied on the customary drive but returned suddenly, after being out less than 20 minutes.

Mr Rixey says Mrs McKinley's ability to maintain her condition under the weather conditions in Washington is in her favor.

STATE BOARD OF PARDONS CUT O'KELLEY'S SENTENCE

Denver June 7.—The state board of pardons tonight commuted to 18 years the life sentence of E. O'Kelley who killed Bob Ford the slayer of Jesse James. The killing of Ford occurred at Creede Colo. and O'Kelley was sentenced to life imprisonment on July 1, 1892. The commutation in connection with allowance for good behavior will give him his liberty in between four and five years.

The board recommended a pardon for Oliver Evans sentenced from Pueblo December 21, 1892, to from five to 14 years for robbery of a man named Higgins. Higgins was before the board tonight and asked that the pardon be granted. He declared that Evans was not the man who robbed him. Higgins said that he met Evans and an Italian named Dirloe in a Pueblo saloon. The two were drinking and he tried to get away from them. The other tried to detain him and after the scuffle he found that he had been robbed. The Italian escaped and Evans was convicted of the robbery. Recently he said Dirloe was apprehended and confessed that he got the money and that Evans had nothing to do with the robbery.

NONE DARED LOOK AT LADIES FROM MORROCCO

London June 7.—A special embassy from the Sultan of Morocco bearing bearing congratulations to King Edward on his accession to the throne created considerable interest on its arrival here today. The embassy which is headed by Kaid El Mehedi El Menebhi the minister of war numbers 29 persons including the ambassador's two wives.

When the deputation was officially received at the Portsmouth pier by Admiral Aldrich and General Sir Baker Russell the reception was abruptly suspended to allow the ladies closely veiled to pass down the gangplank to the sumptuous special train, all Europeans being obliged to retire meanwhile.

During the drive in royal carriages, from Victoria station, this city the ladies were also carefully secluded the carriage attendants and others turning their backs while the ladies entered and left their vehicles.

The ambassador of Morocco brings King Edward two rare Atlas mountain sheep, 10 Arab horses and 20 mules. The official reception will take place Monday.

THE CABINET DISCUSSED CUBA AND PHILIPPINES

Washington June 7.—The cabinet was in session over two hours today discussing the Cuban and Philippine situations. A communication has been received from Governor General Wood in regard to the prospect for the unconditional acceptance of the Platt amendment, but its contents are not made public. It can be stated however that there is a hopeful feeling in administration circles that after the first soreness wears off the convention will see the wisdom of accepting the terms of the amendment. The answer to General Wood is to be sent, and the language of that communication was under discussion today. Meanwhile the existing status in Cuba is to be maintained. No action looking to the calling of another convention is contemplated if the present convention should decline to accept our terms. The program looking to the establishment of civil government in the Philippines is being formulated in the shape of an order which is to be promulgated shortly. It is said that there is no definite conclusion as to whether the powers of the civil administration will be exercised under the general war powers of the president or the authority vested in him by the Spooner amendment. That however is considered matter of detail. The main point is that the civil administration, which will be confined largely to the municipalities will be vested in the head for the Taft commission and such other officials as may be designated and that they will exercise their functions subject to the direct authority of the secretary of war to whom all reports will be made. Civil administration under military supervision such as is contemplated is said not to be anomalous and the civil government in New Mexico and the southern states during the early stages of the reconstruction period are pointed to as being substantially analogous to what is proposed in the Philippines.

WESTERN RAILROADS.

New York, June 7.—The Commercial Advertiser says: The postponement of the conference of western railroad presidents in this city from June 5 to September 5 has been interpreted in some parts of the west to mean that the policy of co-operation and harmony outlined by the western railroad managers had proved a failure. This belief is true in a measure. Under existing conditions it was found impossible to secure a complete concert in action in rate matters. Important changes of railroad ownership are now in various stages of negotiation, and until the exact status of each western road is fixed it is deemed inexpedient to hold any more presidents meetings.

ARGUMENT ON INSTRUCTIONS

Jury in Patterson Libel Case Excused Until Monday. Mr. Patterson Again on the Stand.

Denver Bureau
Colorado Springs Gazette.

Denver, June 7. The following cablegram was received at 12 o'clock last night:

"Yokohama, Japan.

"George W. Baxter, Denver, Colo., U. S. A.

"Hugh dead. Return to San Francisco June 25. Cornelia."

This was the first intimation that Denver people had that Hugh Tevis, who recently married Miss Cornelia Baxter, was even ill. The couple were on their wedding tour and had reached Japan. The last news from them stated that they were both well and the telegram to Mrs. Tevis' father this morning came as a severe shock to their many friends in this city. The couple were married in San Francisco, April 20 last and immediately started on a tour around the world. Mrs. Tevis, the wife of the deceased, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Baxter of this city. She was the queen of the Slaves of the Silver Serpents last fall. Later she went to Paris where she met Mr. Tevis. Their acquaintance continued until it culminated in their marriage last April. Mr. Baxter has wired his daughter for full particulars regarding Mr. Tevis' death, as the telegram failed to explain. Mr. and Mrs. Baxter will leave for California so as to meet their daughter at San Francisco.

At the instigation of his wife Emil McSword was arrested today charged with beating his 18-months-old babe. The woman brought the child to the police station and its face and body showed that it had been unmercifully whipped. One eye was partially closed. McSword [illegible] whipped the child but says he did not intend to strike it so hard. Mrs. McSword says that he has been in the habit of beating her or the child quite often. They have been married three years and it seems that the married life has been quite troublesome.

The evidence is all in in the Patterson-Republican libel suit and all which remains is for the judge to deliver his instructions, the counsel to present their arguments and the jury to render a verdict, but if the afternoon's work is any criterion to judge by the case may reach the jury some time next year. The defense have 25 instructions which they wish the judge to include in his instructions to the jury and the prosecution is said to have 40. During the afternoon only one of the 25 was disposed of. The morning session was devoted to the completion of Mr. Patterson's testimony. He swore that Mr. Maloney informed him that he (Maloney) was at the head of the Democratic campaign. Mr. Patterson said that he had desired Mr. Maloney's resignation as chairman of the Democratic campaign because he had lost confidence in Mr. Maloney's devotion to Democracy. He said that he did not believe Mr. Maloney's motives were right last fall when he put another Democratic ticket into the field. Mr. Patterson's testimony was all along the line relating to who he thought would have been acceptable candidates last fall. After he had completed his testimony the jury was excused until next Monday morning and the attorneys began the task of discussing the instructions which the judge should deliver.

THE NEWS OF CRIPPLE CREEK

Grand Jury Given Instructions by Judge Seeds.

MRS. KIMBERLIN'S SUICIDE

The Deed Apparently Suggested by Mrs. Foreshaw's Death. Utes Will Attend the Congress.

Cripple Creek Bureau
Colorado Springs Gazette.

Cripple Creek, June 7.—The grand jury convened in the district court room this morning and listened to Judge Seeds' instructions. The reading of the instructions occupied about two hours' time. In brief, he told the jury to investigate the affairs and finances of school district No. 1; to examine the buildings of the county relative to the proper enforcement of the statute regulating fire escapes; to investigate the county treasurer's records and system of keeping accounts; to examine into the affairs of a Russian who was robbed of $1,100 in the Manila house last August. It is stated that shortly after this robbery three policemen were discharged, alleged to have received a portion of the money, and threatening the life of the Russian if he did not leave the city. The jury was also instructed to investigate the disappearance of Peter Enzanaur, the complaining witness in the case of the People vs. J. W. Vickers. The witness was shot by the defendant a few months ago at Divide and was taken to the Sisters' hospital. After making a supposed dying statement, he was sent east and was not in the court room this morning when the case was called for trial. It is hinted that he received money for being absent. Charles C. Butler was appointed prosecutor on behalf of the state. George E. Simonton is foreman of the jury. The jury commenced work this afternoon.

Mrs. Jack Kimberlin, aged 41 years, residing with her mother, Mrs. Kennedy, on Springs Creek, a few miles northeast of this city, committed suicide at 7 o'clock this morning by shooting herself through the heart. News of the tragedy reached this city late this afternoon and Coroner Dunn was immediately notified. The body was brought to this city and now lies at Lampman's morgue. The cause of the suicide is stated to have been despondency over the death of her husband and a depression in mining stock [illegible]. Mrs. Kimberlin has been married three times. About two months ago she was married to Jack Kimberlin, a mining man, and two weeks later he died from a paralytic stroke. Her former name was Mrs. Ruby Barnes, and previous to that her name was Mrs. Smith. She leaves a sister residing in Colorado Springs. The dead woman was interested in some mining property near where she lived and associated with her in the venture at the time of her death was ex-Governor St. John, of Kansas, and R. K. Burt, a wealthy manufacturer of Buffalo, N. Y. The property consists of several claims upon which they have spent in the neighborhood of $15,000, without securing any large amount of ore.

Last night Mrs. Kimberlin read the account of the suicide of Mrs. Fred Foreshaw, of Anaconda, and made the remark: "That's the way I'm going to die." This morning she prepared breakfast and called her mother and her brother-in-law, John Parker, to the meal. When they were seated at the table she went into her bedroom, took a revolver from her bureau drawer, and, lying down upon the bed, shot herself through the heart, as did Mrs. Foreshaw at Anaconda on Tuesday. No inquest will be held over the remains. Funeral arrangements have not yet been made.

Chicago, June 7.—John J. McDonald, chief counsel for Dr. August M. Unger, the principal defendant in the Defenbach insurance swindling case, while addressing the jury today in Judge Tuley's court, without a word of warning suddenly fell forward on the bar and lapsed into a state of unconsciousness. It was feared for a time the attack might prove fatal to the young lawyer and former judge and congressman, but Dr. Unger, the prisoner, after an hour's work, finally succeeded in reviving McDonald.

The stroke that laid low the counselor followed a passionate declamation charging Francis Wayland Brown and Frank H. Smiley with being equally guilty with his client, Dr. Unger, if the latter was not absolved from all blame.

SUDDEN DEATH OF W. P. BECK

Well-Known Lawyer Stricken With Paralysis While Arguing in the County Court.

Pueblo Bureau
Colorado Springs Gazette.

Pueblo, June 7. Graduating exercises of the class of 1901 of the Centennial High school were held here tonight at the Grand Opera house in the presence of an immense audience. There were 34 members of the class, one of the largest ever turned out by Centennial, but only seven took part in the program. They were: Jary Lloyd Baldwin, Myra Eleanor Whilton, Grace May Neafr, Carl Theodore Bauer, Earl Lamb, Mary Jane Wright, Roselelle Jeanette Lerin. The graduating class furnished the music. The invocation was pronounced by Rev. Charles S. Early and the diplomas were presented by George J. Dunbaugh, president of the school board of district No. 1.

Judge W. P. Beck, one of the old time lawyers of the city, was stricken with paralysis while arguing a point in a civil case before Judge Coulter in the county court this morning. He fell to the floor and had to be removed to his home in a carriage. A few hours later he passed away. Judge Beck had lived in Pueblo for many years and was highly regarded in the community.

COAL MINERS IN THE FEDERATION

Beginning of Centralizing Movement Among Labor Unions—More Resolutions Passed.

Leadville, Colo., June 7.—This was the last day of the meeting of the State Federation of Labor and all work was cleaned up, most of the delegates departing for their homes tonight.

A step considered by the leaders to be of the utmost importance to organized labor was taken by the Colorado State Federation of Labor this morning, when 3,300 Colorado coal miners, who already have strong unions, were admitted in a body into the federation. This was accomplished on the appeal of President J. L. Ghear of the fifteenth district, United Mine Workers of America who asked that the unions of his organization in Colorado be affiliated with the Colorado State Federation. These unions of coal miners are located principally in Boulder, Fremont, Gunnison, Huerfano and Las Animas counties.

Thus the membership of the Colorado State Federation of Labor, which before the opening of yesterday morning's session was 17,800, is now 21,000. The various unions of the coal miners are affiliated with the Colorado State Federation of Labor in exactly the same manner as the unions of any other craft. They will be subject to the authority of the state federation. It is the beginning of a centralizing movement among labor unions, the aim of which is to have all the unions in each state subject to the state organization in harmony with one another through a single national organization.

Resolutions were passed favoring the public ownership of public utilities, the taking of steps to enforce the semi-monthly pay day law, the improvement of the condition of play grounds connected with public schools and the consolidation of all labor organizations under one national body.

A resolution was passed instructing the unions to have a unionist at each polling place at the next state election to work for the adoption of the eight hour and Australian tax amendments.

Then the matter of the refusal of Peter McCourt for the past [illegible] to employ union musicians and stage hands in his theaters, was taken up. It was resolved that the boycott against him shall be pushed vigorously from now on. A resolution passed by the convention prohibits any member of any union from rendering service of any kind to Peter McCourt.

Southern Education a National Problem.

The whole country was necessarily affected before emancipation by the fact of two races in the south, and the whole country is affected by that fact today. The impoverishment of the south in consequence of the Civil war is not sectional but was national concern. It is eminently fitting and proper that northern men should continue to contribute large sums toward the educational advancement of the southern negroes. The amount thus given since 1865 in the aggregate has been very large. It has all been bestowed with excellent intentions, but some of it has been unwisely used. It is not wholly creditable to some excellent people in the south that they have so little appreciated the spirit in which much of this northern giving to southern negro education has been carried on. On the other hand, it is by no means to the credit of some of the northern agencies of southern negro education that they have worked in the south for a quarter of a century or more without making their way into the sympathy and confidence of the southern people. The mark of real confidence and real educational common sense will come when the management of these institutions planted in the south by northern donors is given largely to southern men. Immense aggregations of wealth are to be found in New York, Philadelphia, Boston, Chicago, and other cities lying to the north of Virginia and the Ohio river. It does not follow, however, that this wealth is local in its origin. Mr. Carnegie's largest gifts, as it happens, have been for the people of Pittsburg and vicinity, and Mr. Rockefeller has given more to the University of Chicago than to any other one institution, while the Stanford millions have gone to an institution in California. Mr. Pierpont Morgan's beneficences have to a great extent been bestowed upon New York objects, the late Mr. Armour gave most generously to Chicago philanthropies, and so on. But there is no proper reason why the institutions of the south should not benefit equally with those of the north by reason of the amassing of great fortunes in the hands of men of liberal inclinations. To the wealth that has accumulated in private hands from transportation and industry, the south has contributed its due share, and this should be remembered.—From "Progress of the World," in the American Monthly Review of Reviews for June.

TO IMPROVE THE CITY'S LOOKS

Mayor Faulkner Issues Orders Regarding Streets

THEY MUST BE LEFT CLEAR

Signboards Are to Be Taken Down and All Measures Taken to Keep the Streets Clean

Mayor Faulkner has ordered all signs and other obstructions which have been placed on the edge of the sidewalks along ? to be removed ? the chief of police ? busy yesterday carrying out his order The board crossings over the ditches will also have to be ? and the result will be a clean and better looking street

The best ? stores dining restaurants and everyone else having a ? will sign in front of a place of business must move it from the edge of the ? on the outside of the building The board crossings which are unnecessary must be removed entirely and the ? that are necessary must be replaced with stone or concrete A majority of the business men ? the change ? full but there were many kicks from those who object to everything which tends to beautify the city The mayor's orders must be obeyed however and there is no ? that the appearance of the street will be greatly improved

Colorado avenue is being graded ? ? ? first class ? ? Street Commissioner Myles acting under the mayor's orders is covering the street with gravel from which the rocks will be ? and will be greatly improved by the ? The holes which have been a nuisance to the drivers ? will thus be filled up and the ? will be ? ? ? ? extent At present when paper is thrown in the ditches it lodges against the many crossings and makes the street look untidy This will be done away with and a number of old telegraph poles which have been replaced and are now out of use will be taken down and hauled away The citizens think that Mayor Faulkner's action in this matter is a commendable one and that ? ? right to have such an enterprising mayor

Night Effects at the Panamerican Fair

Nocturnal architecture No ? in the text books no chapter devoted to it in the universities but it is a department of architecture that the twentieth century will see developed and the Pan American exposition is responsible for it

The promulgators of the exposition have builded better than they knew While of course it was planned that the electrical power from Niagara be utilized while electrical illumination was to be an adjunct to the general architectural scheme ? ? ? ? it was realized that the electrical illumination would dominate the whole exposition But it has done so and he who would visit the exposition at the most opportune time would do well to timed it that at night at ? station point should be not at the Propylaea entrance but at the southern end of the grounds where standing near Francis Washington he may look northward over the Triumphal causeway between the great pylons toward the Electric Tower Here he will see a unique and imposing sight that outdoes Chicago Nashville Atlanta Omaha—a sight the world has never seen before At 8 o'clock the ivory city lies half veiled in the dusk when suddenly but gradually one every cornice every column every dome break forth tiny pink buds of light as though some eastern magician were commanding a Sultan's garden to bloom A moment more and the pink lights grow larger and take on a saffron hue and the whole exposition lies before us illuminated by 500 000 electric flames (the eight candle power incandescent light which Mr Edison who developed it has proclaimed his pet)—and these delicate lights, some single some bunched bring out a thousand delicate tints ? ? playing hide and seek amid many cartouches terminals and lintel squares now Rembrandting the stucco reliefs and delicately toning down the color till the effect is strikingly all gr?

At one of the early nights of the exposition a small boy having evidently made a day's tour of the grounds till he was tired out and ready to go home was only surprised at 8 o'clock to witness the turning on of the lights when to the amusement of the spectators he cried Gee Wizz I'm not going home tonight This will be the verdict of more than the majority of the spectators and doubtless many an early evening train will be missed from a desire to stay till the last moment under the magic spell of this vision of supreme beauty —(From Artistic Effects of the Panamerican Exposition by Ernest Knaufft in the American Monthly Review of Reviews for June

BAND CONCERTS TO BEGIN MONDAY

First Summer Entertainment for the People.

WILL BE IN NORTH PARK

Concert Season Will Be Longer and the Music Better This Year Than Ever Before

The band will play Monday night

Unless something unforeseen happens the Colorado Midland band will give its first public concert of the season in North park Monday evening The band is much larger this year than last and is a better band than ? ? than any other band in the West This summer's concert season will last longer than those of previous years and should be most successful The last concert will not be given until about September 1?

? ? ? for the first concert except that the program has not yet been completed by Prof Irvine the director The concert may be postponed until later in the week but this is unlikely The ? ? ? ? ? ? notice for ? ? ? ? capable of furnishing excellent entertainment for the thousands of persons who are expecting to attend the concerts

The concerts will take place on Monday Tuesday Thursday and Friday evenings and last season's popular Saturday matinees will be continued The band was composed of ? ? men last summer but this year will be increased to ? musicians making it possible for the organization to render many numbers which it was impossible to play last season on account of the small number of instruments The instrumentation this year is as follows

Piccolo flute Eb clarinet ? Bb clarinets oboe soprano alto tenor baritone and double Bb bass saxaphones The last named instrument is the only one of its kind in this county This will give the band nearly half wood wind and will enable them to produce the grand organ effects The brass section will contain five cornets four horns euphonium three trombones Eb tuba double Bb Sousaphone (only four of which are in use in the world) with snare drum trap drum and bass drum The band is also in correspondence with a bassoonist and he is expected to arrive within the month

The above list gives an instrumentation equaled by no other Western organization and will enable the Midland band to perform the most difficult numbers in a masterly manner

The personnel of the band is as follows

CANARY BIRDS CANNOT SWIM

AND THE ROCKY MOUNTAIN ARTICLE IS NO EXCEPTION

Burro Fell in the Creek in Ute Pass Yesterday and Had a Narrow Escape

Truly the heart of man is kind

A poor long suffering burro fell in the creek in Ute pass yesterday and floated down the creek to the soda spring before it was finally rescued from the waves in a half drowned state Almost a hundred men gathered on the bank all anxious to be the rescuer of the animal and they showed their real feelings toward the burro in a manner not to be doubted No matter how the small mute animal of the Rockies may be walloped ? ? ? ? ? ? ? ? ? ? rider may jab the rowels into its sides in an effort to make the little wire footed beast climb the narrow trails faster when he is in trouble the heart of man goes out to him the same as though he were better looking

This ? was yesterday How the burro came to be in the creek no one could tell It might have been leading the other burros a ? ? ? and venture ? ? too far into the treacherous waters like the small boy seeing love near he can ? to the danger sign But ? ? it may be fell in The stream was swift and the animal was carried down it with some force The rocks were slippery and the current swift and he gave up all hope of ever seeing the mountains again and resigned himself to his fate

But it was not to be so Men saw him and lent a rescuing hand

"Throw a rope round his neck shouted some one on the bank

This was done

Look out you're choking him some one cried

Come on are you getting this bird ? or am I

For a time it looked as if there would be a free for all fight but finally the half drowned burro was dragged to the shore After working with him some time the physicians pronounced him out of danger and he was hauled to his home in an express wagon while every one on the bank claimed the distinction of having performed the rescue

"Pike's Peak or Bust" Wagon Was "Busted"

What might have been a much more disastrous runaway occurred about 7 o'clock last evening when a pair of small sorrel horses hitched to an emigrant wagon containing several boxes of provisions and a 10-gallon can of milk probably the much valued food of the weary travelers who owned the outfit was seen by many people to come dashing down Cascade avenue past the Alta Vista hotel As the team drew up to Kiowa street they tried to make the turn east but owing to the frightful rate at which they were going they ran directly into a telephone pole and a large cottonwood tree near by tearing themselves loose from the wagon As they dashed between the tree and the post into the brick wall of the new building on the corner which is being erected by Mr C E Emery for a photograph gallery one of the horses turned completely over Luckily they struck the building just between the large curved glass windows at the corner and the large side window thereby doing no damage to the property except marking up the stone walk some with their hoofs The harness was literally torn to pieces and the front part of the wagon including whiffletrees tongue and gear was badly demolished

The provisions in the wagon were suddenly turned into hash and a stream of milk was flowing down the street Nearly a hundred people were on the scene in a few minutes and many thought it a miracle that the horses were not cut to pieces and could not understand how they made their way between the tree and the post and kept clear of the large windows which were directly in their path It could not be found out at the time who the outfit belonged to as the owners had evidently been left far behind

An Old Friend

S S S has been before the public for ? years from a small beginning, it has steadily worked its way to the front and is now known in every city town and hamlet in the country Its staunchest friends are those who have known it longest and have witnessed its wonderful curative powers in their own families or among their friends and acquaintances Grateful patients in all parts of the country tell of their restoration to health and happiness and the testimony of these is the highest evidence of the medicine's worth S S S is more popular today than ever in its history—no other remedy stands so high has ever given such perfect satisfaction or is so reliable in the cure of Cancer Rheumatism, Catarrh Contagious Blood Poison Scrofula Eczema, Psoriasis Salt Rheum Acne or any disease that originates in the blood Being strictly a vegetable preparation you will find it agrees with you much better than a drug store concoction or any of the widely advertised potash and mercury remedies, which affect the bones muscles and stomach, causing Rheumatism or Dyspepsia If you have never tried S S S, you will be surprised at the immediate good effects

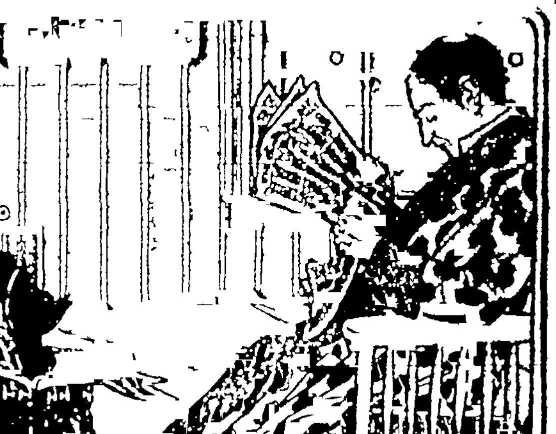

Don't Experiment

for no sooner does it get into the circulation than the appetite increases, you grow stronger and gradually but surely it drives out the poisons and restores the blood to a healthy condition If there is a sore or ulcer on the body, it begins to heal around the edges the discharge finally ceases and the place gets well, muscular and bone pains vanish, and the skin is relieved of all itching irritating eruptions Nervous run down and anæmic people will find S S S just the medicine they need for blood poverty and badly nourished nerves are responsible for their condition For old people and children S S S has no equal, being free from all minerals it does not nauseate or have any injurious effect whatever and keeps the blood in good condition, thus fortifying against disease Experience teaches what is good and what is not good; this applies particularly to medicine and S S S a remedy that has retained the confidence of the people for nearly 50 years must have merit—IT CURES is the secret of its success When you call for S S S don't be persuaded to accept something else there is no substitute for S S S It is the only guaranteed purely vegetable blood purifier, and the safest and best for all blood and skin troubles Do not let them force an inferior mineral remedy on you because there is a larger profit in it. A LITTLE BIG WASTE

DISTINGUISH between economy and wisdom. Sitting at home to save shoe-leather is economy, but it is scarcely wisdom. In the same way, doing without Ivory Soap is economy but it isn't wise; your risks are greater than all possible saving. Every cheap soap contains free alkali. Now, free alkali will eat its way through the new oil cloth on the kitchen floor. Imagine, then, what it will do in a single Monday's washing! Is such economy wise?

Professor Herron was convicted of immoral and [illegible] conduct, inhuman treatment and heartless desertion of his wife and children. Such offenses are sometimes not punishable by a civil court, but they are sufficient to justify the exclusion of the one guilty of them from a Christian church and to bring upon him the condemnation of every right-thinking American, whether he be a church member or not.

What this man was, and what was the character of the wife whom he deserted may be shown by the testimony of the women who best knew Mrs. Herron. [illegible] many [illegible] the proof of her singular struggle to win by infinite love and ceaseless study the man who, in [illegible] own words, "[illegible] companionship with another woman who leads him into heights to which his wife cannot follow." It appeared that Mrs. Herron saw in Carrie Rand a woman who was leading her husband into [illegible] [illegible] with her family of children could not follow.

"But even then she did not despair. She read everything her husband wrote. She followed courses of reading, learned Ge[illegible], hung upon his slightest [illegible], adopted his scheme of philosophy, packed the valises which he carried to Europe at her rival's expense, and when he left her alone and went abroad with the 'affinity' who was leading him to the heights, she drudged at home with her four little children, studied until the small hours, read his seldom letters and prayed that her own [illegible] devotion and [illegible] back to her and to his children.

"But the testimony also showed that Carrie Rand was all this time paying the bills. She had the money and she was leading him up the 'heights' whither his wife and children could not follow.

"One young woman, Mrs. Cole, the wife of a professor at Grinnell college, said that when Herron and his first wife were fellow students at Ripon, Wis., the man's eyes were so weak that he could not have followed his studies without her aid; she read his lessons to him, coached him in the very foundations of his supposed learning, and at that surpassed him in scholarship."

It is not surprising that a man of this character should seek to justify his actions by setting up an original standard of morality, or that he should express views of marriage that are not in accord with the common sentiments of mankind. But the world will give scant respect to a teacher who presents such an example of the fruits of his own principles. The world has learned to respect the honest doubter and the seeker after truth, even though he may be mistaken in his conclusions, but it has no excuse for the man who shows himself to be a contemptible coward and an ungrateful wretch, and who seeks an excuse for his own weakness and meanness in the promulgation of some particular form of moral error.

The world has very plain terms which it applies to men of the Herron mold in the lower walks of life, and these terms apply with equal fitness to one whose superior intellectual or social standing only serves to make his offenses more prominent and more heinous.

THE RAILWAYS AND THE MINES.

CRIPPLE Creek has shown the world to what an extent railways may be made to assist in the development of a mining district. There is hardly a producing mine in the district that does not have a track at the foot of its dump, and the ore is handled at a minimum of trouble and expense.

Cripple Creek is fortunate because it has so many high-grade mines covering so large an area, and there are few districts that can equal it in this respect. But the experience of Cripple Creek has made it evident that railways may be made much more of a feature in mining development than they have been hitherto.

Already Leadville has profited by the lesson, and the ore that was formerly hauled in wagons is now being taken directly from the [illegible] into the railway cars with marked results in increased production and profit. A plan is also proposed for the construction of a railway that will perform a similar service for the mines of Aspen and vicinity.

Such enterprises are of the highest value to the state. Modern methods may be relied on to bring into productiveness many of the older districts, and in many cases the construction of a new railroad or the discovery of a new [illegible]

THE QUESTION OF THE TARIFF.

THE QUESTION of the tariff played a very small part in the campaign of 1900. The Democratic party [illegible] its position by opposition to [illegible] [illegible] the tariff was not a leading issue in the campaign. [illegible] [illegible] here in the near future.

The [illegible] free trade theorists are not of the kind [illegible] by experience. They would, if they could, [illegible] to sweep away the protective tariff entirely and to leave American industries and workmen open to the competition of the world. Fortunately for the country these people are not [illegible] and there is not the slightest danger that the tariff walls will be [illegible].

There are a good many people, however, who favor a revision of the present tariff law, and it is probable that a serious effort will be made along this line. In previous discussions it has been the Republican idea that the tariff should be so adjusted as to accomplish two objects: it should provide revenue necessary for the expenses of the government, and it should protect and build up American industries. The wisdom of this view has been conclusively demonstrated by the [illegible] and there is no [illegible] that much of the success of American manufacturers and much of the prosperity among wage earners of all kinds in this country is due to the Republican protective tariff. At the present time the opinion is gaining ground that a third object should also be considered, that is the building up of American commerce with foreign countries. The experience of foreign countries, and to a limited extent of our own, has shown that a tariff may be made a most effective weapon in commercial competition and that the nation that modifies its tariff upon this principle is at a great advantage over the nation that does not. Moreover, there is a belief that a tariff of this kind may be used [illegible] commercial concessions from European powers, and in preventing combinations with which we have been threatened.

If the opposition to reciprocity in our tariff [illegible] came only from the free-traders it would not be serious, but each tariff concession is opposed by all those interested in receiving the highest protection for the particular article affected, and this opposition is so strong that the administration has not been successful in securing the ratification of any of the reciprocity treaties that have been negotiated. Whether better success will be [illegible]

[illegible]

Another new element in the tariff question is the [illegible] of the trusts. Some Democrats seem to have [illegible] [illegible]

In any revision of the tariff it is only reasonable to [illegible] that the work should be done by those who believe in the general policy of protection and not by those who have opposed protective tariffs and would be glad to see the entire system destroyed. It is also reasonable that the power of making changes should not be committed to the hands of those who are more interested in the exclusion of foreign products than in the extension of American commerce. The chief owners of the present system are the American people, not the capitalists alone, nor the wage earners alone, but the American people as a whole, and it is for the whole American people that the changes should be planned.

Congress ought also to bear in mind that change itself, unless clearly shown to be necessary, is a bad thing. Nothing promotes confidence so much as settled conditions, and frequent changes in our tariff laws are a powerful source of evil to our industry and commerce. Well-considered changes from time to time are advantageous, and in fact necessary, but modifications resulting from political influences or personal efforts do more harm than good, and should not receive the approval of congress.

THE WESTERN LEAGUE.

EARLY in the season it appeared as though there was very little difference in the strength of the eight teams comprising the Western league. But the table of standing as given in yesterday's Gazette shows a different story.

The eight teams have separated themselves into three groups.

Kansas City is in a class by herself and has no serious competitor for first place. Tebeau's cowboys have won 24 games and lost 9, and their percentage of 72.7 is 11 full points ahead of their nearest rival.

Then there are five teams so close together that one might say in the language of the track that a blanket would cover the bunch. Only [illegible] points difference between the Omahas and our own Millionaires, though they hold second place and [illegible]. Any one of these five teams has a good chance to secure second place at the end, and our own team is by no means the least likely to follow the leader under the line.

And, thirdly, there are Denver and Des Moines. Denver is [illegible] points in the rear of the least of class 2, and [illegible] points ahead of Des Moines. It is evident that both the Grizzlies and the Prohibitionists are finding the pace too swift for them and it is yet a matter of doubt as to which will be entitled to the booby prize at the end of the season. Were it not for the manifest advantages of having two teams in the far west, the Denver franchise would be likely to go to some other city next summer.

"FATHER OF THE ELKS."

FEW MEN live to see the result of their work on such a degree as did George W. Cumberland of Brooklyn. He died at the comparatively early age of 55, and he was 33 years of age when he founded the Order of Elks. He was the first exalted ruler of Lodge No. 1 in 1868.

Since that time the order has multiplied and extended until it is now one of the largest and most influential social and fraternal organizations in the country. There are few places in the United States where George W. [illegible]

Among the many residents of Colorado Springs who have purchased property recently with the view of building fine new homes is Mr. L. A. Giddings, who yesterday bought lots 14 and 15, in Enright addition, the ground being at the northeast corner of Nevada avenue and Columbia street. There is a frontage of 100 feet on Nevada avenue and 190 feet on Columbia street. The property was sold by Mrs. Giddings by Professor Albert Pearson, for $7,500. The sale was made by the Davie Realty company. Plans are being prepared for Mr. Giddings for a modern residence which he will build on the ground for his own home.

The Davie Realty company also reports the sale of the property at No. 427 North Nevada avenue to H. H. Barbee, for $14,000. Mr. Barbee bought the place for a home.

Martha O. Clough has purchased lot No. 3, block "F," Edwards addition from Mrs. John G. Shields, for $1,500. The Cloughs will build a $7,000 residence on this property.

A. J. Bendle has bought a lot in the 1800 block on North Tejon street from A. Hemenway, for $1,500.

Drowned Swimming In Broadmoor Lake

Thad Greeley, swimming in Cheyenne lake, Broadmoor, yesterday afternoon, with five other boys, Leonard Greeley, 12 years old, whose home was at No. 1 Lafayette street, Denver, became exhausted and was drowned despite the heroic efforts of his companions to save his life. The body was recovered and the lad's mother, who lives in Denver, was notified.

Young Greeley had been a bell boy at the Broadmoor hotel for about two weeks. He came here from Denver, where he had been employed in various capacities for the past seven years. Yesterday afternoon five boys from Colorado Springs went out to Broadmoor to enjoy a swim in the lake. The water is forbidden there, but as there were few people around the boys undressed their clothes at the boat house without being molested. Greeley, who was preparing for a swim and decided to join them, was shortly before 3 o'clock when the accident occurred. All the Colorado Springs lads had swum from the boat house to the island, leaving Leonard on the shore. He was not a good swimmer, but leaped into the water and started to make his way to the island. He had gone about half way when the other boys saw that he was getting tired. Finally he called for help and began to flounder about.

When the youngsters on the island saw Leonard's plight they hurried to his rescue. He had gone down for the first time when they reached the place, and when the almost lifeless body came to the surface the boys seized it and pulled it towards the shore. They soon became tired, but kept bravely at the task until they were within ten feet from the shore, when they had to give up the struggle. The body sank and did not come to the surface for nearly half an hour.

The boys had called for assistance while they were trying to save Leonard, and one of the caretakers of the grounds heard them. He ran to the lake to see what was the matter, but was too late to be of any assistance. Several other employes about the place were summoned and word was sent to the coroner.

Before Coroner Law reached Broadmoor the body came to the surface of the lake and was recovered. It was taken to Mr. Law's establishment and a telegram was sent to Denver notifying the victim's mother.

Young Greeley was a bright boy, and ever since his father had worked to support his mother. For a long time he was a messenger boy at the Western Union office in the Brown Palace hotel, Denver. Afterwards he was employed as a bell boy in the St. Nicholas and Drexel hotels in that city.

Cadets Go to Camp at Green Mt. Falls

The cadets will take the train for Green Mountain Falls this morning at 8:40. As soon as the train arrives at Green Mountain Falls the cadets will unload their impedimenta and tents and go into camp in earnest for the next ten days. Some of the boys are requested to take their collars and shoe polish with them as these will be necessary when a dress parade is given on visitors' day. Next Thursday will be visitors' day and all the friends of the cadets are invited to go to Green Mountain Falls that day to see how the boys are getting along with their camp. This is a new part of a cadet's life to many of the members of the battalion as the Colorado Springs cadets have not held a camp for the past three years. Green Mountain Falls is an ideal place for a camp and the boys are anticipating a good time with the work of keeping the camp in order, night guard duty and the guard house where the unruly cadets will spend a portion of the time.

Knights of Columbus Will Organize Here

The Knights of Columbus, a patriotic fraternal organization among the members of the Catholic church, will organize a lodge in this city Sunday afternoon at the I. O. O. F. hall. Leading members of the Chicago lodge will confer the degree work. There will be at least 75 members from Denver, 40 from Pueblo and 40 from this city to be initiated. The out of town members will arrive at 9:50 a. m. and attend church at 11 o'clock, where a special service will be conducted. A banquet at the Alamo in the evening will be attended by several hundred members of the lodge. John J. Gorman of Denver, organized the local lodge.

High School Alumni Held Annual Meeting

The members of the High School alumni association held their annual meeting last night in the auditorium of the school. About 150 were present. A feature of the meeting was the presentation to the school of a fine portrait of the late Prof. G. B. Turnbull, who was principal of the High school when it was built.

The meeting was called to order by the president, Miss McAllister. The first business was the presentation of the portrait. M. E. Stubbs made the presentation speech, in which he paid a fine tribute to the memory of Professor Turnbull. The picture was accepted by Principal Mason on behalf of the school. Bert Kern, president of the class which graduated Thursday evening, spoke of the pleasant relations which always existed between the students and Professor Turnbull. W. A. Platt also paid a tribute to the former principal's memory.

The High School Glee club rendered two selections, and then there was an informal reception and refreshments. The annual election of officers was the last business transacted.

The following officers were chosen: President, George M. Perry; first vice president, Melville Clothworthy; second vice president, Mrs. Loud; treasurer, Carl Plumb; secretary, Grace McKeehan; directors, Frank Allen, Rosita Kellogg and Mrs. Fryhofer.

LOYALTY AS A WORKING FORCE

Epworth Leaguers Heard a Rousing Address by President Slocum of Colorado College---Excursion Today.

The second day's session of the Epworth League showed an increased attendance and delegates were still being registered.

Last night the principal address of session was made by President Slocum. The subject was "Loyalty As a Working Principle."

"I remember, when I first came west to take up my work here a friend of mine, who has since occupied a most important place in the affairs of his community, said this to me just before my departure. 'As you take up your work in your new field you will want men about you who are well prepared, strong, intelligent men; you will need a thoroughly adequate equipment, but the most essential of all is loyalty; without it you cannot make a success of your work,'" said Dr. Slocum in the opening remarks of a strong, impressive sermon on the foregoing subject.

"Loyalty means standing for the law, the principle, idea or nation which one believes to be right—loyalty to a law if the law is right—to the law that Jesus, its king, represents.

"Loyalty means power to stand in God's word, and no matter how dark the hour,—how poor or humble your station may be, no matter how trying and strenuous the occasion may be, it means to be able to stand alone and say, 'It's all well because I am standing with God's world for Christ's sake.'

"There never was a time in our country's history when truth and honesty and loyalty were more needed than just now. We are getting rich very fast; we are ambitious, and if America is going to be saved it will be because our young people have determined to stand for Christ and Christ's truth."

"The League's Place in the Revival" was the subject of an address by Rev. H. M. Mayo of Longmont. He dwelt particularly upon the influence of the example of young church people upon revivals and expressed the idea that the young were the life and spirit of the religious movement.

A quartet from Colorado City, composed of Clyde Allam, Harry Daniels, R. C. McKnight and John Allam, sang a selection that was well received.

Rev. R. A. Caruine, of Denver, made the closing address on "Methodist Publications." He accentuated the value of proper literature and dwelt particularly upon such literature as pertained to Methodism. Devotional exercises were conducted by H. Merritt, of Berkeley. J. W. Youngclaws presided.

The principal discussion of the morning session, "The Perils that Threaten Us," Frank E. Brown of Leadville, spoke against the desecration of the Sabbath, particularly in western towns and cities. The working of mines, mills and smelters on Sabbath days was vehemently denounced. W. L. Eggleston of Fort Collins, speaking on the same subject, argued against dancing and other amusements which he considered inimical to the moral, spiritual and physical development of young people.

R. G. Warren spoke of the liquor traffic as the third of the greatest perils which threaten the destruction of everything which is held good and sacred. He made a fine prohibition talk.

The round table discussion on "What is the most successful work your league has accomplished during the year?" was led by B. F. Scribner of this city. W. C. Johnston, Mrs. Carrie S. Hubbell, J. V. Day, Theodore Strawn, Mrs. A. C. Johnson, Miss Maud Post, E. L. Williams and Miss Ida Davis participated in the discussion.

In the afternoon, "The Junior Hour" and "The Ideal Junior Superintendent" were the topics for discussion. Miss Ida Davis presided, and after the conclusion of the devotional exercises by Rev. A. Lester Huzlett of Colorado City, the program on the above subject was divided into topics and discussed at length.

Mrs. Lena M. Linderman of Denver, spoke on "Personal Work, or Bringing Men One by One to Christ."

Today's session will begin at 8, instead of 9 o'clock. The program is as follows:

SATURDAY MORNING.

E. L. Williams, Presiding.

8:30—Devotional. Rev. L. L. Carrington, M. E. South, Colorado Springs.

9:15—Minutes for the Pastors—Is the league a help in your work, and how?

What suggestions would you make to advance the work this year? Does the league hinder your work in any way? If so, how?

9:35—"What Can We Do in the Missionary Department?" Walter L. Winkler, First Church, Colorado Springs.

9:50—Discussion, with questions.

10:00—"The Epworth League and Missions," Rev. Geo. B. Smythe, D.D., San Francisco.

Report of state officers.

Report of committees.

Election of officers.

New or unfinished business.

The trip to Rosemont will take place this afternoon. Short Line trains leave at 1:30 sharp, from the D. & R. G. depot. Trains return at 6 o'clock. An accurate estimate is impossible, but it is thought that about 200 delegates will go on the excursion. The evening session will begin at 7:30 o'clock.

Seriously Injures His Own Brother

Tom Gunnell, the 17-year-old son of Thomas O. Gunnell, was shot and perhaps fatally injured early yesterday afternoon by his younger brother. The shooting was accidental and was done with a small air rifle with which the two boys were playing.

The boys were playing in the back yard of their home at No. 827 East Cache la Poudre street and had been shooting at different objects with the air rifle. The smaller boy finally stood on the steps which lead to the cellar and playfully pointed the rifle at his brother, who was standing on the ground a short distance from him. He accidentally pulled the trigger, shooting his brother in the right eye. The sight was not destroyed as the bullet did not touch the eyeball. It entered the head just above the eye and lodged near the brain, from where it has not yet been extracted.

The air rifle shoots a missile oblong in shape. It is about three-eighths of an inch long and is propelled with considerable force.

The injured boy was removed to St. Francis hospital where his injuries were cared for. An operation will be necessary to get the bullet out, and as it is lodged close to the brain the injury may prove fatal. The boy was conscious all the time and at midnight was sleeping easily.

When the smaller boy realized that he had injured his brother, perhaps fatally, his grief was beyond control. He is about 9 years old and he and his brother were always the best of friends. There was no quarrel of any kind and the shooting was merely a deplorable accident. A number of the friends of the family hurried to the house as soon as the news of the accident was spread in the neighborhood and a physician was hastily summoned. He ordered the boy removed to the hospital and called in the services of a specialist. The boy was given medicine which eased the pain and caused him to go to sleep. He will be operated on this morning and the bullet extracted.

FUTURE TRADING MEANT $9,000,000 LAST YEAR

The Margins Deposited With the Clearing House Indicated That Sum for Which Thirty Day Trading Was Responsible.

The governing committee of the exchange has been conducting some investigations in regard to future trading, and have ascertained from the records of the clearing house that during the last year in which the system has been in operation there has been $[illegible] worth of time trading done on the exchange.

The present warfare waged upon the governing committee by some of the more radical element dates back one month ago when a petition asking for the immediate abolishment of the 30-day trading system was signed and presented by 64 of the 127 members of the exchange.

The petition was at once considered by the committee, which gave a public hearing to all parties interested. The members of the exchange appeared to be nearly equally divided on the subject and the arguments pro and con about counterbalanced, although some of the speakers said that the abolition of the system would be to force them out of business. The committee therefore deferred action until such time as further facts could be secured, and until a larger proportion of the members were able to agree among themselves on the proposition.

Later investigation developed the fact that during the 12 months that the system had been in operation there had been deposited with the clearing house as margins on time transactions the sum of $[illegible]. As the margins are based on 25 per cent. of the purchase price, they represent transactions aggregating $[illegible]. Moreover, there were deposited with the clearing house during the same length of time, stock certificates of an additional value of $[illegible] in lieu of cash margins. The margins deposited, therefore, represent time trading of a value of nearly $9,000,000 during the last year.

The present committee thought that to discard this volume of business would be a very serious matter. To deprive members of the thousands of dollars in commissions upon such business is also a serious consideration. The action of the committee, therefore, in demanding ample time for mature deliberation has been commended by the majority of the brokers and all of the conservative element.

The present system of time trading was adopted by the present governing committee only after there was a unanimous request that it should be done. Many petitions were presented to no effect. The committee was always opposed to time trading, although many of the results which they feared have not resulted. But they felt that the unanimous request of the members was not to be disregarded. If there were any such unanimity of sentiment now, the committee would have no alternative but to abolish the system, but as it is, the best interests of the exchange must be strictly regarded.

JACKSON AND LUNT ACCEPT THE NOMINATION

An Exciting Election Will Be Held This Morning---A Victory Is Practically Assured for the Conservative Element.

W. S. Jackson and H. G. Lunt yesterday accepted the nomination for seats on the governing committee of the exchange on the written request of a good majority of the members of the exchange, and their names were duly posted. The signers of the petition urged the candidacy of the two gentlemen and pledged them their support, so that their election is practically assured.

The election occurs today from 10 a. m. to 12 o'clock noon and promises to be the most exciting contest which the exchange has ever witnessed. The lines are closely drawn between those who support the established conservative policy of the exchange, and those who wish a general reorganization; but the sentiment has been growing at a tremendous rate in the past few days in favor of keeping the control of the exchange's affairs in the hands of the associate members of the exchange, and a triumphant victory is assured for both Judge Lunt and Mr. Jackson.

These two gentlemen are charter members of the exchange. They have been identified with it from the very start, and it would be impossible to find among the many able business men in this city two who are more qualified to serve on the governing committee. It is assured that, with the other members whose terms have not yet expired, they will conduct the affairs of the exchange in a wise and careful manner. The effort to put on the committee at this [illegible] the more radical element has not the approbation of either the brokers, as a body, nor the business men of the city.

Judge Lunt and Mr. Jackson are not pledged for the time trading system, nor against it; they are not pledged for any one man for president, nor for any fixed salary. They will be elected, and take their seats with an open and unprejudiced mind, ready to give every question its full measure of consideration, and assist in the administration of the exchange's affairs in the same business-like, conservative way which has made the exchange what it is.

The association was founded by well-known business men of this city, who have retained its control up to this time. No organization of the kind has ever been under more capable management, and it has prospered accordingly. It has a larger membership than ever before, a larger income, a larger treasury reserve, a larger volume of business and larger possibilities. At least one-half of the members of the governing committee have been associate members, among them the presidents of the three banks, and the majority of the brokers are in favor of letting the exchange continue under such able management rather than turn it over to those who represent the revolutionary element, as the exchange, an element which is swayed by every new idea and [illegible] as their whims directed them.

COLUMBIA SHIPPED YESTERDAY

Thirty-Six Tons of Good Ore Marketed---The Winze Is Being Sunk to Connect With the Level---Rich Ore Showing.

A shipment of 36 tons of ore was made yesterday from the Cripple Creek Columbia on Beacon hill. The ore came from the winze in the middle vein and is expected to run in the neighborhood of six ounces in gold to the ton. It has not been the intention of the management to attempt any production, but as it is desired to get the winze down 60 feet below the 340-foot level so that a connection can be made at an early date with the drift from the new 400-foot station. A considerable amount of the ore has been broken and hoisted. As the winze continues downward the ore is constantly improving, indicating that it will be as rich in the Columbia as it is at a corresponding depth in the Kimberley adjoining. The winze is now between 20 and 40 feet deep.

Work is progressing nicely in the drift from the 400-foot station, and the ore is expected to be reached by the 15th inst. The vein which dipped through the shaft will not be exploited until after the other two are cut. It is confidently expected that each of the three veins will yield a very handsome amount of stoping ground at this depth, and as the veins have not been developed very far north, the possibilities for ore are very bright. The Columbia owns the northern extension of the veins for nearly 1,500 feet.

SOLITAIRE DIRECTORS CHANGED

J. W. Pring and W. S. Nichols Succeed W. A. P. McDonald and G. A. Hughes---W. S. Nichols Is Now President.

The directors of the Solitaire met in this city yesterday afternoon to effect some changes in the directorate and in the officers. The meeting was called to obviate the necessity of summoning a stockholders' meeting at this time, and the various changes were brought about amicably.

W. A. P. McDonald resigned as president and director of the company and in his place W. S. Nichols, president of the Mary McKinney company, was elected; G. A. Hughes resigned as director and J. W. Pring was appointed to his place; then T. C. McDonald resigned as vice president and Mr. Pring was elected to that office, and to that of general manager as well.

The changes give the management of the company's affairs over to local people entirely, the directors being H. H. Barbee, J. W. Pring, W. S. Nichols, T. C. McDonald and A. E. Rish.

The company owns the Solitaire and Comstock claims on Raven hill, a large acreage on Carbonate hill, including the Elkhorn mine, and the lease on the Cripple Creek Columbia. The company is in good condition financially and will prosecute active work in the near future on different portions of its territory. The Comstock is being worked by two sets of lessees, one of whom has very flattering prospects in a 50-foot shaft, and the other is going to sink for the extension of the Ellison vein.

GREAT EXCITEMENT AT YANKEE

Among great strike on Lombard, 30 inches of $100 ore, several carloads of high grade in ore bins ready for shipment; mill running full capacity day and night. New strike on Portland No. 1, owned by C. Maier, et al.; large body of quartz opened up near surface, studded with free gold; owners greatly elated. Capitalists from Colorado Springs offer large figures for bond and lease on Portland No. 1. Pay Dirt changes hands for a sum as reported up into the thousands. Gold Coin has large body of pay ore in breast of tunnel. Owners will ship as soon as the new mill is in operation at the "34" Tunnel Co., which is only 1,500 feet down hill from the Gold Coin, being one of the most promising properties in the district. Surveyors are taxed to their utmost, prospectors locating fractions wherever available. Cumberland gulch is completely covered with locations and patented properties. The owners of Cumberland mine are negotiating with Eastern and Denver capitalists for the sale of their mine. If successful the deal will involve in the neighborhood of $120,000. Machinery and lumber are on the ground for the big plant on the Faust. Captain H. I. Seeman is working three shifts on his large tunnel. The captain's great progress and money he is spending shows that capitalists have great faith in Yankee, as Yankee is no longer a prospecting camp, but a full-fledged mining camp. With all of its large shipping mines and fine prospects it bids fair to outdo even the great Cripple Creek gold belt, its prospects with one-tenth of the development it takes in Cripple Creek becoming great shipping mines. Capitalists are getting their eyes opened to the fact that Yankee is far ahead of a good many camps in the state for quick and large paying dividends. The formation of Yankee is an ideal one. The veins are all large, well defined quartz veins, showing free gold on the surface, though becoming great shipping mines with a little depth, which the following properties and dividend payers have proved, viz: Lombard, Cumberland, Independence, Pay Dirt, Surprise, Man Lode, Ohio tunnel, Gold Band tunnel, Texas, Whale, Louisa, Enterprise, Lolla, King Soloman, Last Hope, Gilt Edge, Anker, Chesapeake, Puritan, Stonewall, Last Hope, Rio Grande, Little Clara, Wire Gold, Gold Coin, Oro Verde and Stewart tunnel. Above are some of the great shippers, for the amount of development that has been done upon them. The new dry process installed at the "34" tunnel has proven a great success and will handle ore at a good profit to the mine owner. This will be a great boon to Yankee, as nearly all of the large mines have a good sized streak of low grade ore, in connection with their high grade ore, which heretofore has been thrown over the dump.

CRIPPLE CREEK MINING NEWS

Special to the Gazette.

Cripple Creek, July 7.—A settlement of a carload of ore from the Jennie Sample of the Gould company on Raven hill shows the mine to be in an excellent grade of mineral at a depth of 470 and 500 feet. The values returned are better than 2½ ounces in gold to the ton, while a carload of lower grade mineral gave about an ounce and a half in gold to the ton. The company has been handicapped in making operations for some time by the breaking down of the air compressor, but [illegible] with the parts coming from the east within a week or two. The bulk of the ore is from the 4th and 5th levels, and as soon as it is possible [illegible] another [illegible] even more improvement is looked for.

Thomas Moynahan and associates, operating the lease on the south half of the Princess K. claim of the Elkton company on Raven hill, are now confining their operations to the deep shaft on the property, the [illegible] shaft having been abandoned on account of a disadvantage to the work. In the 60-foot shaft samples show values of nearly 12 ounces in gold and the vein will be worked out from the south end.

Lessees Moynahan and Sammons, operating the Yellow Bird of the Mariposa company, are shipping from 20 to 30 tons per week from the three levels of the property in ore. The settlement on the last carload amounts to close to $30 a ton and a car is out at present from which even better returns are expected.

The Tenderfoot Consolidated company, working the Hill Top claim on Tenderfoot hill, are making good progress in the crosscut at the 200-foot level. The management expects to reach the vein which is sought within the next 20 feet of work. The cage which was installed in the shaft is giving ample satisfaction.

A shipment of 25 tons of good smelting grade ore was sent out today from [illegible] from both of the winzes sunk from the 150-foot level of the property. The crosscut to the east at the 150-foot depth is making rapid progress and the lessees expect to open up the first east vein in about 20 feet of work.

Harcourt and Panter, leasing block No. 4 of the Little Nell, are putting the new shaft down rapidly with the aid of the plant of machinery which was started on Tuesday. About three feet of sinking per day is made and at this rate the lessees should reach ore in a little over two weeks' time. Another shift have been added to the force and the work in the old shaft has been [illegible] completed down to the 100-foot depth.

The Indicator company, owning a claim of the same name adjoining the Vindicator, is now sinking another hundred feet in the shaft which will take it down to the 700-foot level. A new plant of machinery will be put in as soon as possible. The ground has been pretty well prospected without success at the 600-foot level but a vein cut at this depth is expected to yield values as soon as the additional development work has been accomplished.

The Cripple Creek Consolidated company has suspended operations on the Florence claim on Bull hill. The company sunk a 250-foot shaft and drifted about the same amount of crosscutting and drifting [illegible] which did not run pay.

MINING NOTES AROUND TOWN

It is reported that the visit of Nelson B. Williams, president of the Isabella Gold Mining company, to Europe is connected with a deal for the sale of the property, but this is not credited in mining circles. Mr. Williams is going, it is stated, for purely personal reasons and his trip has no significance so far as the mine is concerned. The property is in a satisfactory condition, all things considered, but is hardly making a showing which would appeal to the European capitalists.

DRILLING RESUMED ON FLORENCE OIL WELL.

Drilling has been resumed on the property of the Colorado Springs and Florence Oil and Coal company, located south of Florence. A delay was caused by the accidental pulling out of the casing which enabled the loose sand and rock to bury the drills and tools, and it has taken some time to extricate them. At the time of the accident the well was 700 feet deep and the indications were very encouraging, the shale which was being floated up having a strong odor of petroleum, and very often oil would appear on the water as well. Good progress has been made while operations were under way, and it is expected that oil will be opened in a short time if the work runs smoothly. The casing is 7½ inches in diameter and the drilling is being done with a good plant of machinery.

TWO LEASES GRANTED ON MONUMENT AND ONE RENEWED

The directors of the Monument Gold Mining company have just granted two leases, one on the north and one on the south end of their Mary Alice claim on Battle mountain which they recently purchased. David Heaton gets the north block, while H. T. Brown and associates get the south one. On [illegible] the shaft, now down to the 125-foot point, to the 300-foot level, and on the south block a new 4 by 8 shaft must be sunk and good development work done. The leases are for three years, with royalties at 20 per cent for the first year and 25 per cent for the second two.

NEW ONTARIO AND ASTOR STOCK READY.

H. H. Mitchell has returned from Cheyenne, Wyo., where he went to attend to the re-incorporation of the Ontario and Astor companies. The capitalization of the Ontario was raised from 1,250,000 shares to 1,750,000 shares, while that of the Astor was raised from 1,500,000 to 2,000,000 shares. The par value of the stock in each company is one cent, giving them a total capitalization of $17,500 and $20,000 respectively. It is announced that the new certificates are now ready and can be secured on the surrender of the old ones. The number of shares was increased to permit the companies to create needed treasury funds, and the amount of the capitalization was reduced to escape the excessive taxation imposed under the new Colorado laws.

PLANT IN PLACE ON THE NEW OPHIR SHAFT.

The new plant of machinery recently installed over the new shaft on the Dead Pine claim of the Ophir company on Battle mountain, has been started up and will greatly facilitate the work of putting the working to the 500-foot point. The capacity of the plant is equal to 1,000 feet, and it is working very smoothly. The shaft is down between 50 and 100 feet, but is to be pushed to the 500-foot point as rapidly as possible before any lateral work is attempted. From the old workings a regular production of good grade ore is being maintained. The property is very favorably located for the discovery of a large shoot of ore and every effort will be put forth to open one.

THE COLORADO SPRINGS MINING STOCK EXCHANGE

Colorado Springs June 7—The market today on the local mining exchange was inactive in the lower lists but the mines were quite lively, especially Isabella which was more heavily traded in than it has been for a long time although there was no material movement either way in the price of the stock. The preferred prospects received very scant attention and all the low priced stocks were very quiet but a noticeable steadiness pervaded the calls and some fractional gains were scored in all of the departments making the general tone of the market strong. A few favorable happenings in Cripple Creek now would hasten higher prices for although the condition of the camp is prosperous it takes some sensational strike to touch off a good market.

The market upon the afternoon call resulted in good trading in the mines; otherwise the call was dull and inactive. In the mines list Mountain was 19. Doctor was interesting as usual. It opened at 74 and under good trading sold up to 77 at the close. El Paso was stronger at 39 1-2 while Gold Dollar was steady at 17 3-4. Golden Cycle was weaker at 68 seller 30. Isabella was active but it weakened off to 61 3-4 seller 30 at the close. Mollie Gibson was the most active stock of the whole call. It opened at 40 3-4 and with good trading sold up to 41 3-4 seller 30 at the close. This is several cents over yesterday's price. Vindicator at $1.10 showed strength. In the prospects Blanche was 4. Eclipse was inactive at 15 3-4. Elkanor sold at 2 1-4. Mary Cashen was strong at 2 1-4. Triumph was 4 1-4. Altamont 2. Cadillac 2 1-4. Ernestine weaker at 1 5-8 while Union Bullion was up at 7 3-8. In the unclassified stocks only four stocks were traded in. Spar was 1 1-4 and Zoe closed at 4 1-4.

The total amount of sales for the day was 231,000 shares for which the cash value was $47,700. This is quite a falling off from the previous day's.

EASTERN MARKETS

New York June —In today's stock market there were only a few points of activity and strength and the majority of stocks were dull and sluggish moving irregularly up and down under the varying operations of the room traders. There were some large transactions by the brokers who have been credited with acting for various financial leaders but they were so mixed on the long and the short side as to add to the speculative confusion. The volume of dealings showed a further falling off from yesterday's decreased total. The opinion prevailed that the closing out of accounts earlier in the week was in preparation for a summer holiday season and promised a period of comparative dullness and idleness in the market. Whatever points of strength are shown in the market seemed to be due to individual causes. Louisville was notably strong and the buying was accompanied by talk of an increase in the dividend rate which was however deprecated by insiders. Missouri Pacific and the southwesterns moved up toward excepting the Wabash which were affected by realizing. The story recurred that Missouri Pacific is to be placed on a five per cent dividend basis later in the month by the declaration of a 1 [illegible] dividend and that valuable rights in addition are to be declared. The movement in Baltimore and Ohio seemed to be based on reports of the conference between Pennsylvania and Reading officials presumably to arrange measures for the benefit of Baltimore and Ohio. The New York public utilities were generally affected by hopes of relief from the franchise tax and in addition Brooklyn Transit put out a report of good net earnings for April. The Tobacco stocks were subject to active speculation on the organization of the consolidated company. The stock was feverish receding early on realizing but rallying on published assertions of the formation of an underwriting syndicate for the new company [illegible] posed debenture bonds and keep them off the market. The Continental stocks show great gains of about a point. American Tobacco [illegible] American Snuff [illegible] and the preferred 2[illegible]. There were besides many usually neglected stocks which advanced from 1 to 5 points without any news to explain the movement. Net changes as a rule are not significant; the sluggish fluctuations not taking prices far from last night's level although the extreme range from high to low was from 1 to 3 points in the active stocks. Not much attention was paid to the money market but the call loan rate ran up to 4[illegible] per cent in the late dealings. On Monday the fourth annual installment of $10,000,000 is due on subscriptions to Union Pacific convertible bonds.

Preparations will begin next week also for the payment of several dividends by the week after notably that on Standard Oil. The indications are that the cash changes to be shown by tomorrow's bank statement will be less than half a million dollars with probably a gain for the banks. The firmness of the sterling exchange market both here and in Paris in view of the reflection of the bank of England rate and the easy discounts in London attract considerable attention. Remittance on account of the next installment on British colonial subscriptions which falls due on June 18 is a factor at both centers. Paris seems to be transferring large amounts of capital for investment in the London market besides New York is making preparation to meet the June 20 dividend and interest obligations in London. Besides London was a larger seller of stocks here today. The exchange market was [illegible]

The gold export point for the last outward movement but no gold was engaged for export.

The bond market was quiet and irregular. Total sales par value $[illegible] United States bonds were all unchanged on the last call.

The London Market

New York June —Commercial Advertiser's financial cablegram:

The stock market here was quite heavy in the early dealings with American shares decidedly feverish. With the exception of Norfolk & Western the whole list sold freely. The result was a sharp drop all around and an unsettled feeling. Toward noon however New York having caused a rally with Louisville & Nashville first and Union Pacific leading in the upward movement. The feeling did not last and the finish was depressed at about the worst of the day. The authorities here are inclined to the opinion that the decline is temporary and part of an organized movement of the New York market to prevent public buying from getting beyond control again.

The Bank of England has received £1[illegible],000 gold in bars and has bought £[illegible],000 at the Cape and £[illegible],000 in Brazil. The money rates continue easy at 1[illegible] per cent on call 2[illegible] per cent fixtures and 6 per cent discounts.

R. G. DUN & CO.'S REVIEW

New York June —R. G. Dun & Co.'s weekly review of trade tomorrow will say:

The labor situation in many parts of the country is still seriously unsettled and constitutes a reason for hesitation in some industries discouraging new operations which satisfying conditions would otherwise stimulate. But quick decision is to be expected in some of these labor controversies and in the meantime trade is encouraged by reports of a satisfactory condition of winter wheat over a large portion of the country. As for spring wheat, the crop was put in under very favorable conditions and there have been few unsatisfactory reports. Railroad earnings for May show 9.6 per cent in excess of 1900 and 3.2 per cent over 1899 which reflect a continued activity in the country while at New York the [illegible] [illegible] 8.5 per cent over 1900 and 5.1 per cent over 1899 with gains at the leading cities outside New York of [illegible] per cent over 1900 and 2.[illegible] per cent over 1899.

The cessation of manipulation in corn contributed to a decline of [illegible] per cent in breadstuffs.

Labor controversies have become the factor of greatest importance in the leading manufacturing industries. Counting perhaps upon the heavy loss which would be sustained by employers in case of suspension the machinists made what were considered unreasonable demands by employers at many points who have taken a determined stand and announced that the strikers' places will be filled by non-union men on Monday if they fail to resume work. More quiet conditions in the market and fewer new contracts make this action possible. As a rule manufacturers have not sought business beyond July 1 and it looks as though they had been preparing for the conflict. Pig iron is extremely dull, not a sale of Bessemer being reported during the week at Pittsburg and quotations are nominal.

Large contracts for rails sustain billets and finished steel deliveries continue heavy. Shipments of farm machinery attract much attention while bridge building, new vessels and track elevation prevent dullness in structural material.

Efforts to secure advances in grain by exaggerated reports of damage to the growing crop have given place to more rational statements and the outlook is generally conceded to be full of promise. Speculative operations for a decline however are far from aggressive, the severe losses of the short interests thus far this season taking [illegible] traders extremely cautious. A slight flurry in July wheat at Chicago caused hasty covering and a sharp advance which was checked when moderate profits were quickly taken. Abundant production in the United States does not necessarily weaken prices if European crops are falling below expectations and foreign purchases continue heavy.

Atlantic exports for the week flour included amounted to 4,[illegible]0,144 bushels against [illegible] last year and [illegible],[illegible]49,5[illegible]3 [illegible] years ago.

Pacific exports is also showing good gains ten [illegible] 5[illegible] bushels against 591,0[illegible] a year ago.

Including exports at Duluth and Portland Me the total foreign movement for the week exclusive of Canadian ports was 5,6[illegible],5[illegible] bushels against [illegible],[illegible]6,644 bushels last year.

GAMES TODAY

Colorado Springs at St. Joseph
Denver at Kansas City
St. Paul at Omaha
Minneapolis at Des Moines

Special to the Gazette.

Kansas City, June —The Kansas City Blues lost their first series of the season, and Hulen's Colorado Springs team covered itself with glory by turning the trick this afternoon. Tebeau's prospective champions were not only defeated but they were also shut out, the score being 2 to 0, and the Millionaires thus getting revenge for the coat of whitewash Wehnr[illegible] gave them Wednesday.

It was a pitchers' battle between the two lightweight twirlers, McNeely for Colorado Springs and Gibson for Kansas City. The former got the glory of winning, but he was hit harder than Tebeau's collegian. The latter held Hulen's men down with five little singles, while the Blues got seven off McNeely. Gibson was unfortunate. ho[illegible] that his only base on balls was issued just before Beville made a wild throw, and two of the Millionaires got hits. Law really won the game in the seventh inning by a timely drive to left for one bag. The hit sent the two runs across the plate.

Hulen's men played a great game in the field behind McNeely. Schaefer's bobble of a hard grounder, being the only misplay charged against the [illegible]. It did not cost anything. The Blues had hard luck in the fifth or they would have scored. With Ketchem on second, Miller drove the ball through the pitcher's box for a base. Ketchem could have scored easily, but the ball hit Umpire Messner and he allowed only one base.

PATH-FINDERS BEAT THE "COLORED KIDS"

The [illegible] game with the colored kids [illegible] The game was [illegible]

AROUND THE BASES

The Millionaires have as good a claim as anybody to third place than [illegible] If they defeat St. Joseph today and St. Paul loses to Omaha our team will be in second place instead of third. The recent work of the teams, however [illegible] that both Colorado Springs and St. Paul should win today.

Denver seems to have the goods to deliver under the proper circumstances. He has not [illegible] both games he [illegible] but both games have been shut outs for the opposing teams.

Colorado Springs has [illegible] particular kick [illegible] the morning on the [illegible] men secured from Denver. The five yesterday were five in number and three of them were to be credited to the players secured from Denver. Shay [illegible] the wealthy and Schaefer to [illegible] of the day [illegible] the Springs was charged secured the others. Law [illegible] the seventh was the winning run of the day. It may be that Parkard's men would [illegible] good if they were only playing for a good town.

The result of the Kansas City series will awaken tremendous attendance [illegible] interest [illegible] games [illegible] Wednesday, Thursday and Friday. Kansas City comes [illegible] Colorado Springs and the Millionaires [illegible] as they did away. But what [illegible] series. It [illegible] be a hard [illegible] for the Millionaires [illegible] they fail to do as well against the Blues as the Denver[illegible] did. Watch for the score tonight.

A Denver man who happened to be in [illegible] night said that Kansas greatly [illegible] that Denver should have taken two games from St. Joe. He said Denver had certainly been playing [illegible] this year and they he added that he had not seen any games himself.

No wonder Denver played "Chump" ball.

The $[illegible] that [illegible] secure the baseball team is the best investment of $[illegible] the [illegible] have been the first team to take two games out of a series of three from Kansas City and they have been the first to administer the Blues a shut out. As a result Colorado Springs was more talked about in at least eight cities of the United States last night and today than any other subject. Anyone who thinks there is little public interest in the baseball situation is invited to answer the Gazette editorial [illegible] phone any night from [illegible] until midnight.

SPRINGS CAPITAL IS STILL REACHING OUT

Just what the significance of the visit of Colorado Springs capitalists to Pueblo is is not stated, but the fact that they were in the Pittsburg all day yesterday and that they were in conference during most of the day with the officers of the Pueblo Traction company is believed to indicate that they have dealings on there in which Colorado Springs is interested to a considerable extent.

Messrs. Boubright and P. B. Stewart, of this city, accompanied by Mr. Chance of New York, a capitalist of known standing who recently disposed of the big bond issue of the Rio Grande Western road, and Mr. S. B. Gibson of [illegible] Trust company, were in Pueblo together all day yesterday and are believed to be acquiring extensive [illegible] there. It is said that Mr. Boubright is making arrangements to establish a branch office in Pueblo. The report could not be substantiated [illegible] proved last night, however.

The Earth-Star

Earth stars are members of the plant kingdom, writes Nira L. Marshall in St. Nicholas for June, and are closely related to the puff balls with which all country boys and girls and all frequenters of the woods are familiar. They ripen their spores [illegible] puff ball seed, a round brown ball as they [illegible] but are unique in their wonderful manner of scattering their spores. For this purpose the plant develops a tough outer coat to the ball which on a damp day when the spores are ripe [illegible] and [illegible] about the ball. # Read the Wants

Owing to the bad weather of last week these curtains did not move as rapidly as we would wish, so we have continued the sale this week. The lot consists of a number of odd pairs that have accumulated from this spring's selling. They are marked at prices that will move them rapidly.

Carpet Remnant Sale Continued

This carpet remnant sale is perhaps the most interesting sale of the season. High class carpets that sell at one third less than they did three months ago. They are remnants, you know, and remnants are always sold at a reduction. Perhaps just what you want is here. See the. We can save you ONE-THIRD.

Tapestry Portiere Sale Continued

This opportunity is most timely for furnishers of summer homes. They are in three separate lots. Lot I is marked $7.00. Lot II, $5.50. Lot III, $7.00. Which signify tremendous reductions, some being cut one-half and two-thirds their original values. Will you avail yourself of this opportunity?

New Arabian Curtains

Perhaps the most popular window drape now in vogue is the new Arabian Lace Curtains. They come in most striking patterns and are a shade darker than the ecru. A new line just received.

New Line Val. Laces

Our lace memory is excellent. Many years of practice have made it so, and yet we can't remember having shown such a stylish and fashionable line of vals as comprises this new lot.

Remnants Wool Dress Goods

The opportunity doesn't often arise to secure remnants in desirable lengths as well as stylish patterns. There are both; and low priced besides. They come in waist, skirt and dress lengths and are yours for

One-Half Value

MERCILESS REDUCTION IN THE SUIT SECTION

This week we announce an unusual price reduction on Tailor Suits, Raglans and Jackets. Radical price concessions that should win new owners for these garments in a jiffy.

25 Per Cent. Discount

On our entire line of Suits, Jackets and Raglan Coats. All are particularly adapted to hot weather wearing, being made of light-weight fabrics and lined accordingly.

New Line Rain Coats

In buying these we skipped everything that was simply "cheap." We know but few women who can appreciate a garment that is "simply cheap." This new lot is above reproach, yet at very unusual prices.

About Wash Fabrics

The distinguishing characteristic of our lines is the originality and exclusiveness encompassed in them. We are our own severest critics. Our buyers have standards to meet that must undergo the most crucial comparisons before the goods are exploited to you. Discriminating women readily realize the refined character of our wash goods.

A Word of Alterations

A great many women are timid about buying a suit if it has to be altered. For this reason Giddings have established and altering system that is infallible; which is under the direct supervision of one of the most competent madames in the west; whose past services have been highly recognized as most satisfactory by a number of the largest and most progressive firms in the west.

Honesty Prices----Underwear and Hosiery

The economy, with the refined character of our garments makes Giddings unapproachable in its field. Economy, though highly gratifying, is by a great many overestimated. Practical women realize that the purchasing of reliable underwear or hosiery at honest prices means economy, and not the poorly made stuff that is "CHEAP."

IDEAL FURNITURE

Art and Honesty in Every Piece at Quick Selling Prices.

We sell all the medium grades of furniture as well as the finest at the lowest prices, and you shall be the judge after inspecting our LARGE AND COMPLETE ASSORTMENT IN EVERY DEPARTMENT. New goods arriving daily, some specially good values in DRESSERS, $8.00 upwards; SCREENS, 75c upwards; ODD CHAIRS AND ROCKERS, GARDEN SWINGS, PORCH FURNITURE. See our Paper Bed Bolsters.
